

Eliezer Murphy

45351 Corkery Forges, Houston, TX ♦ Phone: +1 (555) 793 6260

EXPERIENCE

TIER, INSTRUCTOR OPERATOR PILOT

Philadelphia, PA

11/2015 – present

- Provide instruction in classroom, simulator, and flight environments
- Work in groups or independently with minimal or no supervision
- Responsible for data management and generation
- Troubleshoots technical problems/issues and determines technical solutions
- Direct interface with customer
- Practice ISO 9001 principles and concepts
- Instruct Army Pilots in combat qualifications (Readiness Level Progression) training

T-PILOT INSTRUCTOR

Philadelphia, PA

03/2011 – 10/2015

- Assists in project and development work as assigned
- May assist with the development and updates of training devices
- Assists as a Subject Matter Expert in the development of curriculum for new type courses, and review of existing lessons and/or changes to existing lessons
- Performs diagnosis and remediation of student performance issues
- Provides suggestions to improve and update training policies and procedures
- Performs administrative duties such as student record keeping, monitoring student progress, counseling, quality assurance, safety, and security
- Provides Pilot procedures instruction in classroom and simulator environments

PILOT INSTRUCTOR

San Francisco, CA

02/2008 – 12/2010

- Provides training for Visual Threat Recognition Avoidance Training (VTRAT)
- Acts as a Lesson Subject Matter Expert to review existing lessons and/or changes to existing lessons
- Promotes a positive attitude towards learning and embracing new technologies and tasks
- Conducts ground training for other crewmembers to include diagnosis and remediation of student issues
- Provides Crew Resource Management (CRM) training
- Other duties as assigned
- Performs administrative duties such as scheduling, record keeping, monitoring student progress, counseling, quality assurance, safety, security, and maintenance of training programs and equipment

EDUCATION

TULANE UNIVERSITY

Bachelor's Degree

SKILLS

- Knowledge of aircraft systems and operating procedures, aerodynamics, flying fundamentals, aircraft instrumentation, ground and flight emergency procedures, instrument and visual flight rules, Formation, Basic
- Knowledge of aircraft systems and operating procedures, aerodynamics, flying fundamentals, aircraft instrumentation, ground and flight emergency procedures, instrument and visual flight rules, Formation, Basic Fighter Maneuvers (BFM), Air Combat Maneuvers (ACM), Surface Attack (SA), Surface Attack Tactics (SAT); and Low Altitude Operations; as well as knowledge of training aircraft, and of the operation, characteristics, and limitations of the corresponding aircraft simulator
- Skill in the use of a variety of computer applications and software, to include simulator systems sufficient to meet desired learning objectives and to demonstrate flying procedures and maneuvers
- Ability to communicate clearly and effectively orally and in writing while using computer based teaching aides to include classroom instruction before large and small audiences
- This position has been identified as a designated position under the Air Force Drug Testing Plan. Incumbent(s) of this position is/are subject to the possibility of a random drug testing
- Previous experience as an instructor in fighter aircraft is highly desirable
- Knowledge of the methods, principles, practices, and programs related to curriculum development, instructional techniques, and training resources
- This is a non-flying position; special salary rate does not apply
- Experience as a rated military aviator (fighter pilot) is critical to the successful completion of assigned duties
- Incumbent is subject to work other than normal duty hours, which may change daily due to simulator and academic work schedules