

Experience

Agricultural – Mann, Davis and Crona, Phoenix, AZ

10/2019 – Present

- Experience working in an agricultural research program, operating small plot equipment, field research data collection
- Experience operating GPS-equipped farm equipment
- Experience in agronomic row crops and farming practices
- Experience analyzing and detecting mechanical problems and implementing new procedures as needed, work and communicate with diverse audiences
- Experience repairing and maintaining diesel systems, hydraulic systems, electrical systems, brake systems, small engines and various other mechanical and electronic systems found on farm equipment, vehicles, and research equipment
- Experience reading and interpreting technical service manuals
- May require hours outside of normal business hours

Agricultural – Weber and Sons, Phoenix, AZ

08/2014 – 04/2019

- Experience in the operation of seed conditioning, treating, bagging equipment, and general seed production knowledge
- Additional training in or experience with integrated pest management, field sampling, and environmental issues
- Coursework or experience with research methods and basic data analysis
- Experience with tractors and the operation of farm implements
- Experience in Cooperative Extension or similar educational field
- Skilled in completing and maintaining accurate records
- Knowledge of department decontamination procedures
- Benefits include optional insurance coverage and a LinkedIn Learning training account
- Skill in operation of laboratory equipment, such as stereo-microscope and dissecting scope

Education

Parsons The New School for Design – Bachelor's in Education

Skills

- Excellent communication skills which allow to navigate in both formal and informal discussions both verbal and written
- Proven project management capabilities including initiating and planning projects
- Self-motivated pro-active initiator with a can-do approach, always looking for the next trend
- Good analytical skills and well organized
- Interpersonal skills necessary in order to sell, negotiate and close business with customers
- Effective communication and listening skills when answering phone calls from customers and associating with peers
- Be able to communicate in English effectively both in speaking and writing
- Be able to travel as per business requirement
- General knowledge of horticultural production