EXPERIENCE

JESSICA COSTUME DESIGNER-STYLIST 01/1985 to CURRENT

Walt Disney Co. | New York, NY

Lead costume designer for numerous film and television projects, music videos, and print advertising campaigns. Responsibilities included interpretation of client's image goals, meetings with artist, directors, agencies and producers to decide and then define their needs. Managing a crew of assistants to execute the jobs needs and goals in an unusually short period of time making certain that the budget restrictions were respected. Shopping was done at boutiques, costumes houses, pulled from New York designer showroom samples or designed and built for them. I often needed to come up with a concept or theme for their image. This involved illustration and fabric swatching. I often was also responsible for procuring props and set design needs. When the job was prepped I had fittings for all principle talent, returns of items that were not going to be used then were made. I supervised all wardrobe and its fit and look for the shoot and prepared the expense report and finished returns after the job was complete.
