EXPERIENCE:

Victim Advocate

- Escorted victims through their Sexual Assault Forensic Examination (SAFE), providing the comfort, courage, and assistance they desired in order to endure the SAFE process which helped the prosecution collect the evidence needed for a conviction.
- Advocated for and escorted victims during their Criminal Investigation Division (CID) interview, requesting breaks when the victims gave signs of needing one, which allowed the victims to collect themselves and their thoughts before continuing with the interviews.
- Assisted victims in the processes of both restricted and unrestricted reporting which ensured the victims' wants and needs were addressed at the appropriate levels.
