

MARIAM GULGOWSKI

380 Kemmer Pike, Los Angeles, CA

PHONE

+1 (555) 134 0071

EXPERIENCE

Rau, Williamson and Abernathy

Los Angeles, CA // Associate Mechanical Engineer // 06/2018 – present

- Performs inspections of system components, preventive maintenance, testing and troubleshooting of modules and circuit cards to the lowest replaceable unit (LRU)/component
- Perform operational test and return to service checks
- Perform logistic support requirements such as research, and equipment and spare part inventories
- Interact with all levels of the organization in a professional, diplomatic, and tactful way
- Multi-task efficiently and work in a fast pace environment on multiple projects

Gulgowski Inc

Los Angeles, CA // Associate Mechanical Engineer // 12/2015 – 03/2018

- Work with minimal supervision, documents maintenance tasks via local or web- based reporting system, provides system functional briefings to customer and supervisor
- Majority of time spent providing repairs in a shop environment and at the customer location
- Proactively contribute to the company's policy of continuous improvement
- Carry out any additional duties requested by the RSC Team
- Master level, preferably in a mechanical maintenance field or equivalent experience

EDUCATION

Massachusetts College of Art

Bachelor's in Mechanical Engineering

SKILLS

- Determines cost of equipment, parts, and tooling related to designed equipment. Assists in the preparation of capital purchase requests
- Assists in the writing and execution of validations
- Bachelor's degree in Engineering required. B.S. in Mechanical Engineering
- Experience designing components within a medical device facility utilizing CAD softw
- Experience with creating/updating facility/architectural and P&ID drawings