

EVELYNE YUNDT

856 ARTURO HILLS, BOSTON, MA

---

PHONE

+1 (555) 524 8067

---

EXPERIENCE

MCKENZIE AND SONS

12/2018 – present

New York, NY // Aviation

- Experience with airport operations, project development, design and understanding of plans and specifications for construction projects
- The Incumbent should have a broad general technical and business background
- Our Project Managers still get very involved in the planning and designs of projects
- History of successful leadership on complex projects
- Previous experience leading projects and teams on complex projects
- RA, RID or PE Certifications/licenses
- Manages the most complex and sensitive projects, often in multiple geographic locations

GERLACH, BRADTKE AND BERGNAUM

03/2012 – 09/2018

New York, NY // Aviation

- Previous airport planning experience
- Strong understanding of the aviation industry
- Excellent graphic skills
- Federal Aviation Administration Advisory Circulars (FAA ACs) and Airport Improvement Program (AIP) Grant Management
- Airside and landside planning including assessments of forecasting and airport capacity analysis and facility requirements evaluation
- Categorical exclusions, environmental assessments, and environmental impact statements
- Airport master planning and related studies

---

EDUCATION

UNIVERSITY OF CINCINNATI

Bachelor's in Aviation

---

SKILLS

- Proactively identifies potential project problems or opportunities, analyzes the issues using all appropriate resources, develops alternatives and arrives at the most optimum approach to mitigate problems or exploit opportunities
- Provides strategic plan and delivery on key client and program success
- Prepares and delivers presentations on behalf and in support of the client's program
- Serves as the single point of contact to the client and acts as a liaison between management and clients on advanced program-related issues