

Maurice James F. Englebert

Margaret St., Key West, Florida

Phone: 305- 334-0912

englebert_mjf@ycmail.com

Objective

To be an Agriculturist in a federal or state controlled farm production company

Summary of Qualifications

- About 8 years of experience as an agriculturist in a pharmaceutical company specializing in forestry and farming products.
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills in English.

Career Experience / Job History2002 – Present: Agriculturist Consultant, Parke-Davis

- Meet with farmers, farming associations and government agencies about health of crops, crop infestation, farm animal nutrition and disease treatment, soil enrichment and environment
- Perform research studies on farm products such as pesticides, fertilizers, animal feeds, and cross-breeding techniques
- Conduct information sessions, seminars and workshops with large numbers of farmers
- Demonstrate new products or services
- Carry out applied and field research into environmental conditions, product effectiveness and animal nutrition and health
- Conduct field testing on herbicides and
- Attend conferences and seminars on emerging technologies on farm production and breeding

Education

2005 – Present: various in-house and 3rd party seminars on pest control, animal farm breeding techniques, soil enrichment and ecology