EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Car Mechanic at Active Auto Repair NYC, New York

October 2011 – Present

Active Auto Repair NYC is an auto repair shop specializing in European & Asian vehicles. As the Car Mechanic, my core activities include:

- Conducting car inspections, diagnostics, and repairs on European imports.
- Recommending repairs to fellow mechanics to maximize accuracy and efficiency.
- Performing repairs of automatic and manual transmissions as well as realignment and replacement of brake systems.
- Maintaining vehicle records, warranties, and inventory of replacement parts.
- Ensuring proper usage of tools and equipment according to company policies.

Car Mechanic at Teddy's Place Auto Repair, New York

July 2006 – October 2011

Teddy's Place Auto Repair services is a full-service auto repair facility based in NYC. As the Car Mechanic, my core activities included:

- Aligning wheels, adjusting tracks, and repairing steering equipment. Work was completed during the first visit and within the scheduled period.
- Troubleshooting mechanical defects in Diesel engines. Was routinely called upon for recommendations due to expertise.
- Rotating between mobile and working at the service station.
- Road-testing vehicles to confirm all repairs were up to par.
- Providing detailed reports to the customers and following up any calls. Customer satisfaction increased by 37% in 90 days.

Auto Mechanic Trainee at MetroCar, New York

April 2003 – January 2005

MetroCar is an on-demand car repair service offering convenience for vehicle repair and maintenance. As the Auto Mechanic Trainee, my core activities included:

- Diagnosing mechanical failures and determining corrective actions.
- Gathering details on customer vehicles for repairs and reports.
- Following the direction of Fleet Manager. Quickly completed training and was recognized by management for quick-thinking and analytical skills.
