

---

Farm worker CV Sample

/Jack McDonald/The Barns, Ruralhope/01234 55553444/ jackmcdonald@efarm.com

Professional Summary

An experienced and suitably qualified stockman who has knowledge of hill beef cattle in both Scotland and northern England. Have worked with Belted Galloway and Highland as well as other breeds including English Longhorn and Charolais. Currently work with rare breed cattle. A range of useful skills offered including calving (on hill as well as inside). Other relevant experience from working on small mixed farms includes milk parlour work, lambing, haylage and silage making, and some arable experience. Tractor and trailer work. Computer literate. A committed and enthusiastic worker with a commitment to farming as a life-long career. Now looking to work for a larger estate or trust with opportunities to extend skills and progress career.

Core Qualifications

- Rare Cattle Management Basics, Rural Skills College 2011
- First Aid at Work 2010
- Cattle Handling Basic Skills Rural Skills College 2007
- Driving license

Experience

Small is Beautiful Rare Breeds Farm Trust Cumbria January 2010 - present: Farm worker

- Responsible for assisting in day-to-day management and handling of small herds of rare-breed cattle
- Assist stock manager in record keeping and other aspects of herd management
- Help organise open days for public

Riggdale Farm Scottish Borders June 2008 - January 2010 Farm worker

- Assisting in day to day management of medium sized mixed herd on successful farm in Scottish Borders
- Assisted in calving and lambing on hill
- Assisted in international AI programme from high quality beef bloodlines

Education

Uplands School, Kyedale, Scottish Borders 2006. Now that you've seen how simple it is to create a CV that has instant impact using a farm worker CV sample, discover more effective ways to give your career a boost on the livecareer.co.uk web site!