

Geovanni Price

528 Dale Island, Houston, TX ♦ Phone: +1 (555) 104 5454

EXPERIENCE

HEAD START TEACHER / FAMILY ADVOCATE

Houston, TX

04/2014 – present

- Assist with the development and implementation of a crisis plan by collaborating with the team
- Instrumental in completing provider satisfaction surveys
- Work collaboratively as a member of the interdisciplinary team
- Provide short term intervention to families
- Provide referral and linkage to relevant community resources
- Alert the clinical team of any lethality issues
- Maintain timely progress notes

MEMBER & FAMILY ADVOCATE

Detroit, MI

09/2007 – 11/2013

- Serves as a liaison and facilitator between members, staff, and representatives of social service agencies and others; maintains a barrier resolution process within and between the system partners to translate system successes and barriers into positive systematic changes
- Maintain strict confidentiality
- Participate in staff meetings
- Follow up with area Emergency Department referrals
- Support agencies' policies and procedures
- Teach and model positive parenting strategies

EDUCATION

SETON HALL UNIVERSITY

Bachelor's Degree in Social Work

SKILLS

- Assign and direct staff's work, providing timely feedback
- Develop staff, parents and volunteer skills in working in the classroom
- Link families with appropriate community agencies and services
- Work in collaborative relationships
- Efficiently manage time, tasks, and sharing of pertinent information
- Work in a respectful manner with all children, parents and employees; comply with HS Program Performance Standards for managing child behavior and standards of conduct, and exhibit the attributes identified in the program's Professional Behavior Expectations, and Edmonds CC Workplace Civility and Respect Policy
- While in the presence of children, assure the safety of each child by remaining alert and focused at all times, making quick and spontaneous decisions using problem-solving skills and good judgment based on organizational policies and procedures
- Maintain the safety of the environment and children through visual, auditory, verbal, mobility and smell
- Punctuality and consistent attendance are essential functions of this position; maintain consistent attendance as exhibited by no less than 95% attendance
- Communicate in English (both orally and in writing) at a professional level with staff, clients, children, management, outside agencies, educational community, and the public in small to large group settings, one-on-one, or on the phone providing grammatically correct and content appropriate information suitable for diverse population