

MARK ROBINSON

CIVIL ENGINEER

CAREER

CIVIL ENGINEER — Company 2014 - Present

Responsible for managing complex new construction projects. Applying for building permits & safety certificates. Involved in various feasibility studies. Making buildings safe. Deciding on which plant machinery equipment is most suitable for construction. Mentoring and guiding junior and new employees.

CIVIL ENGINEER — Company 2013 - 2014

Involved in the design and construction of bridges. Ensuring that structures are safe and functional. Supervising the work of other engineers. Identifying building sites that have the best foundation. Organising the timely delivery of construction material. Accurately updating administrative and data records.

CIVIL ENGINEER — Company 2012 - 2013

In charge of budgeting, controlling costs and keeping the department on track financially. Maintaining a log and list of all required repairs and upgrades.

CIVIL ENGINEER — Company 2011 - 2012

Responsible for managing projects from proposal to construction and then to completion. Translating a client's idea into reality. Doing Permit applications.

SKILLS

Civil Engineering

Landscapes

Equipment control

Supervising staff

Giving advice

Purchasing material

EDUCATION

2013 - 2014

Course details

Uni. name

2012 - 2013

Course details

College name

2011 - 2012

Course details

School name

ABOUT ME

Mark takes pride in being an engineer and gets satisfaction from knowing that people will benefit from what he has helped to build. He has a sense of adventure and also possesses a strong desire to use his unique skills to make the next generation of high performance, sustainable buildings. With his current employer he has a long track record of impressive results in a range of building structures.

CONTACT ME

Dayjob.com, Grosvenor House Birmingham B2

0123 456 7890

info@dayjob.com

Facebook.com/name

LinkedIn/name

REFERENCES

Referee name
JOB TITLE
T: 0121 638 0026
E: info@dayjob.com

Referee name
JOB TITLE
CT: 0121 638 0026
E: info@dayjob.com