

ROBERT SMITH

Health Advocate

Phone: (0123) 456-789 | Email: info@qwikresume.com | Website: Qwikresume.com

SUMMARY

A graduating senior prepared to obtain a career-entry position in the area of health promotion and disease prevention. Major strength includes successful coursework, relevant experience in solving health-related problems, strong communication skills and health care experience.

CORE COMPETENCIES

Mircosoft Word, Planning and Implementing program.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Health Advocate

ABC Corporation - February 2011 – October 2014

Key Deliverables:

- Helped the children learn, eat, and brush their teeth.
- Became a floating aide and worked every day in a different room giving people time off still assisting the teacher.
- Coordinated & taught health and life skills classes such as nutrition, hygiene, character education, managing emotions, & bullying prevention.
- Developed health assessment needs survey to interview 140 children & arrange referrals.
- Created health and wellness programs for the campus Provide a safe and confidential space for students to talk about health-related topics.
- Utilized social media platforms to spread awareness concerning Psoriasis and other autoimmune diseases globally.
- Traveled to meetings all over the country to provide input regarding future medical treatments to various pharmaceutical companies.

Health Advocate

Delta Corporation - 2006 – 2011

Key Deliverables:

- Conduct outreach and to engage community members.
- Create links and connections between vulnerable populations and resources.
- Educate community members on proper use of health and social service systems.
- Facilitate communication and coordination of services between community members and providers.
- Coach community members in effective management of health conditions and self-care.
- Support and advocate for underserved individuals.
- Establish and maintain positive working relationships with community members and community partners.