

Howard B. Walden

Warren Ave., Detroit, Michigan

Phone: 586-099-4876

Walden44@ycmail.com

Objective

To take on a supervisory position as part of a team of automotive designers in a leading automotive manufacturers

Summary of Qualification

- Ten years of experience rising through the ranks in a major automobile manufacturing company.
- Excellent command of 3D modeling and CAD/CAM software tools
- Sample of production cars models with major engineering participation available upon request.

Career Experience/Job History*2000 – Present: Assistant Automotive Engineer, Passenger Vehicle, General Motors, Detroit

- Develop components and systems that provide engineered customer value at the least production cost.
- Meet with customers in a product focus group and marketing specialists and designers to create a concept car that address what people want in a car, station wagon or SUV.
- Coordinate with 3rd party suppliers of electronic control systems for accreditation and acceptance for use in new models.
- Coordinate with marketing for pricing structure of new models.
- Document crash test results and implement engineering changes as necessary.
- Document the features of approved car models.

Education

2000 – Present: In house workshops on automotive engineering design, fuel efficiency, computerize automotive systems.

1996 – 2000: Bachelor of Science in Automotive Engineering, Michigan Technological University