

JESSICA CLAIRE

- resumesample@example.com
- (555) 432-1000
- Montgomery Street, San Francisco, CA 94105

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Current Database Assistant at StatCore Inc. seeking the Medical Scribe role offering 4 years of excellence in data entry skills and data record keeping. Possesses basic knowledge of databases, document review, quick typing skills, strong attention to detail skills, and a positive work attitude to maintain quality standards. Other previous experience includes scanning equipment operation and support services. Continues to seek ways of improving processes, accuracy, and efficiency.

SKILLS

- Specimen Collection
- Phlebotomy
- Hipaa
- Quality Control Guidelines
- Recording Data
- Excellent Communication Skills
- Specimen Labeling Procedures
- Labeling
- Medical Terminology
- Ehr Experience
- Stock Supplies
- Medical Documentation
- Special Projects
- Statistics
- Strong Computer Skills

EDUCATION

Alabama A & M University
Normal, AL • 12/2021

Master of Science: Biology
• Coursework in cardiovascular physiology, principles of research, advanced physiology I & II, pharmacology, and immunology.
• Maintained a 4.0 GPA.

Tuskegee University
Tuskegee, AL • 05/2019

Bachelor of Science: Nutritional Science
• Coursework in medical nutrition therapy, nutritional biochemistry, and methods of food analysis.
Participated in research projects that focused on cardiovascular conditions as well as extraction of chemical properties from aloe vera plants for antimicrobial purposes.

Tuskegee University
Tuskegee, AL • 07/2018

Bachelor of Science: Biology
• Coursework in molecular biology, undergraduate research, cell biology, and foundations of cancer biology.
• Participated in research projects that focused on cardiovascular conditions as well as extraction of chemical properties from aloe vera plants for antimicrobial purposes.

Northern Virginia Community College
Annandale, VA • 05/2015

Associate of Science: Science
• Dean's List for 3 consecutive semesters: Spring 2013, Fall 2013, and Fall 2014.
• Maintained a 3.5+ GPA.
• Coursework in general biology, anatomy and physiology, microbiology, medical terminology, and psychological statistics.

WORK HISTORY

Davis Joint Unified School District - Health Database/Researcher
Davis, CA • 01/2017 - Current

- Communicates with end-users, team members, and managed projects.
- Writes research reports regarding various COVID 19 testing techniques.
- Gathers and organizes information for research purposes.
- Verifies data information prior to entry to maintain high data accuracy.
- Maintains accuracy of data before transcribing.
- Locates, verifies, and corrects data entry errors and reported to management.
- Performs data entry tasks with accuracy and efficiency.
- Organizes, sorts, and checks inputted data and charts against original documents.
- Proficient in database/data entry programs such including Excel and Google Forms.
- Reduces data errors by 95% through quality control.
- Attended project meetings and transcribed meeting minutes, topics of interest and project statuses.

Parkway Place Mall - Kiosk Worker
City, STATE • 12/2020 - 12/2020

- Used electronic register system to ring up customer purchases, process payments and issue receipts.
- Operated cash register, collected payments and provided accurate change.
- Helped average of between 15-20 customers per day by responding to inquiries and locating products.
- Assisted customers by finding items quickly, boosting satisfaction rate by 85-90%.
- Verified over $100 or more of cash and credit payments daily.
- Handled customer complaints and concerns promptly, escalating complex issues to direct supervisor for quick resolution
- Greeted customers and responded to informational requests

Alabama A&M University Student Health Center - Medical Volunteer
City, STATE • 09/2020 - 11/2020

- Assisted physicians with daily laboratory duties and maintenance of clinic office supplies.
- Obtained vital signs and collected biological samples to assist with diagnostic testing and ongoing assessments.
- Promoted patient comfort by quickly responding to calls and handling diverse needs
- Operated and cleaned laboratory instruments.
- Ensured that medical/administrative data remained accurate by 95%.
- Pulled patient records and transferred information to appropriate parties.
- Logged all requests for medical records into spreadsheets.
- Assisted in microscopic slide preparation/viewing for further investigation.
- Assisted with sorting specimen samples and travel to specific departments to deliver medical information.
- Labeled assigned specimens for sorting and documentation purposes.
- Cooperated with medical staff to ensure that medical supplies were restocked for weeks ahead and prepared treatment packages.
- Organized, filed, and inputted laboratory data efficiently.
- Educated patients on health issues regarding infections on campus settings and how to avoid them.
- Sorted specimen materials and filed according to guidelines.
- Input data into computer/support systems.
- Adhered to all facility, company, and legal guidelines.
- Carried out day-day-duty accurately and efficiently.
- Performed duties in accordance with all applicable standards, policies, and regulatory guidelines.
- Used Microsoft Word and other software tools to create documents and other communications to send to local hospital facilities.
- Limited discrepancies by accurately handling, storing, transporting and submitting all urinalysis and blood samples.
- Collected and labeled urine and blood specimens to prepare for delivery to other laboratories.

CERTIFICATIONS

Volunteer Certificate, Alabama A&M University John & Ella Byrd McCain Health & Counseling Center - 2020