

LINWOOD MAYER

791 RODRIGUEZ BURGS, DALLAS, TX

---

PHONE

+1 (555) 825 5022

---

EXPERIENCE

MARKS-MACEJKOVIC

Detroit, MI // Pilot

05/2019 – present

- Possess a minimum of an FAA multi-engine commercial license, ATP Airline Transport Pilot certificate preferred and a current instrument rating
- Have enough professional experience as a pilot to safely conduct flight operations
- Be willing to travel extensively both domestically and internationally on long deployments with little notice
- Be able to set priorities and effectively manage production operations in a stressful, high-intensity environment filled with uncertainty, short deadlines, and changing requirements
- Have significant professional experience in airborne acquisition operations requirements

LINDGREN AND SONS

Detroit, MI // Pilot

05/2012 – 03/2019

- FAA Airline Transport Pilot certificate, First Class FAA Medical Certificate
- Recent International experience that includes north Atlantic operations
- G-280 typed and current
- Current Certificated Flight Instructor (CFI)
- Business Aviation operations
- Best safety practices, SMS, IS-BAO
- Aircraft FOM Procedures, limits, protocols and recommendations
- Customer service and effective/respectful communication
- Critical decision-making
- FARs, CARs, ICAO and International Operations

---

EDUCATION

UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI–COLUMBIA

Bachelor's in Aviation

---

SKILLS

- Understands and adheres to company policies and procedures
- Able to work collaboratively across teams, and foster strong work relationships
- Understands the urgency with respect to constrained timelines, and is able to multi-task in a high-pressure environment
- Maintains high standards of integrity
- Possess knowledge of use of training aids and devices and use of audio-visual training aids
- Knowledge of proper safety and security procedures
- Experience in using industry standard survey equipment and processing software, such as Pix4D or Agisoft