

Tim McCarley

.NET DEVELOPER

Summary

Highly skilled, motivated, and dedicated software developer with around 8+years of extensive system Analysis, Design, Development, Testing, and Deployment of multi-tier web applications and software applications Experience in Web Application Development (websites) and Windows Application Development (Win Forms) using ASP.

Notable Skills

- Strong Experience in designing and developing applications using MVC(Model View Controller).
- .NET, C#, .NET Framework Technologies.
- Good Knowledge of SDLC, Angular JS.
- Experience with Developing GUI using Web Technologies like HTML, CSS, JQUERY, JavaScript and XML.
- Worked Extensively in managing Database using ADO, .NET, Entity Framework.
- Knowledge of various frontend tools for debugging and performance optimization.
- Experience in Conduct code reviews and manage the process.

Call me here:

4896 Lucy Lane, Vevay, IN 47043
Mob: +1 812-427-2161
Email: mcarley@resumesbot.com

Education

MASTER'S IN COMPUTER SCIENCE IN COMPUTER SCIENCE, 2011

University of Houston Houston, TX

Work Experience

.NET DEVELOPER

Matson's Navigation, Vevay, IN | Feb. 2013 - Present

Matson's Navigation is a leader in Pacific Shipping. Its transportation offerings span the globe from Shanghai to Savannah to delivering a wide range of multi-modal services throughout North America. Ports project is to port all functionality associated with the facts, mainframe application to a web-based platform and to support a fixed number of high priority enhancements. Ports is a web application used for creating Bookings and Bill the shipments ordered by customers, creating Quotations and Templates, maintain commodities, link containers to bookings. Rate Engine is the main module in this application responsible to rate and charge the customers.

My duties and accomplishments are the next:

- Involve in the development of Service Layer, Data Access Layer, Business Layer, Presentation Layer and different layers of N-tier Applications.
- Extensively work with Controllers, Directives, Scope, Model and Modules in Angular JS.
- Involve in working with Server-side State Management Techniques like Session state to maintain state between ASP.NET pages.
- Involve in N Unit Testing & Integration Testing of the entire application.
- Greatly involved in the development life cycle, from the design phase to the implementation phase, testing and deployment. Use the MVC design pattern.
- Creating and developing Stored Procedures, Functions, Views, Indexes, Triggers, Cursors, XML, Joins, user-defined data types and other Complex Queries using Server 2008/2005 & Oracle 11g/9i.

.NET DEVELOPER

Atena, Vevay, IN | Jul. 2010 - Jan. 2013

XMPie is a composition third party tool to generate PDF's using Data, Content, Variables and Template. Atena portal contains UI to define content rules and supply to XMPie to generate PDF for minimizing manual intervention. Atena portal web UI provides multi-client capabilities, data migration tools/process to convert current data for 7 Atena Clients, and provide UI to access new content management system. Create automated workflow to handle approvals, change tracking and auditing. Design and implement data and system integration solution for 3rd party vendor software.

- Used HTML and CSS for web page design and JavaScript for client-side validations.
- Create variable-data templates and online storefronts using the XMPie platform.
- Worked on WEB API Services backend and Angularjs Front End.
- Involved in the Creation and Code Review of XML, XSLT.
- Wrote test cases for Business services and Web API using Nunit and maintained code coverage for each project 100% using Team city tool.
- Involved in Writing User Interface Code, Business and Data Layer by using C#. NET Language.

Information Technology (IT) Resume Examples here:

<https://resumesbot.com/information-technology-it-resume-examples/>