

Agricultural Scientist Resume Sample

Jeffery Smith
3320 Twin House Lane
Miller, MO 65707
(333)-335-8500
jeffery.s@emailaddress.com

Job Objective To obtain an Agricultural Scientist position in a company that will allow me to grow along with the company.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Extensive experience of agricultural research, development and guidance delivery
- Sound knowledge of soil science, crop technology, horticulture and farm activities
- Commendable knowledge of agricultural chemicals and related legal regulations
- Familiarity with agricultural outreach and animal production practices
- Ability to oversee and manage assigned projects and teams, in a time-efficient manner
- Ability to resolve farm production issues and assist with registration of agrochemicals

Professional Experience:

Agricultural Scientist
Primus Group, Inc., Miller, MO
August 2012 – Present

Responsibilities:

- Researched and evaluated all impacts of cultivation methods, environment and diseases on agriculture.
- Gathered, analyzed, and documented samples and lab results, efficiently.
- Planned, implemented and revised activities, methods and techniques for improving crop health and production.
- Counseled farmers and farm managers on improving crop production and educated them about effective crop disease control.
- Interpreted and adhered to government-approved regulations and standards.
- Supported quality control activities and utilized standard test and measurement controls within lab environment.

Agricultural Scientist
CyberCoders, Inc, Miller, MO
May 2009 – July 2012

Responsibilities:

- Investigated and studied about plant diseases, pest control and environmental impacts on agriculture.
- Collected and tested crop products and pesticides used in agriculture.
- Prepared and provided accurate and timely work-related and research reports.
- Created new varieties of crops and developed highly efficient methods of crop production.
- Met and counseled farmers and fruit growers regarding improving crops and fruits production.
- Followed and registered agrochemicals according to established international regulations.

Education

Master's Degree in Agricultural Science
George Fox University, Newberg, OR