

ROBERT SMITH

Lead Database Manager

info@qwikresume.com | LinkedIn Profile | Qwikresume.com

To contribute to an organization that can use a dedicated professional with thirst to learn new things and to take on new challenges.

EXPERIENCE

Lead Database Manager

ABC Corporation - SEPTEMBER 2007 - SEPTEMBER 2008

- Receive and implement guidance on task prioritization from the Transformation Integration Officer.
- Develop and Maintain two website for document distribution.
- Obtain, review and analyze data from multiple classified systems using both Excel and Access.
- Evaluate critical readiness indicators and present findings to Transformation Integration Officer.
- Analyze and apply manpower management standards.
- Conduct studies for variations to the manpower staffing standard.
- Evaluate critical manpower resources readiness Indicators and present findings.

Database Manager

ABC Corporation - 2005 - 2007

- Accountable for the design, configuration and installation of all major Oracle database environments on Sun Solaris platforms.
- Major activities included logical and physical database design, capacity planning, performance tuning, database security, disaster recovery, installation and ongoing maintenance with special emphasis on web based server administration automation.
- Other activities included evaluating and selecting Oracle database tools, responsible for database and application tuning, capacity planning and database stability.
- Successfully maintained peak performance of all primary databases by providing advanced tuning methods, customized scripts, Oracle Enterprise Manager and PreciseSQL.
- Designed, created, and populated tables and views.
- Developed queries, stored procedures, triggers, and functions for data manipulation.
- Assisted with the design and implementation of workflow applications to update and insert data..