

JESSICA CLAIRE

100 Montgomery St. 10th Floor • (555) 432-1000 • resumesample@example.com

Summary

Innovative instructor effective at researching curriculum, promoting results-driven objectives to increase positive outcomes. Works diligently to monitor growth through creative assessments. Offering highly organized, proactive and punctual with team-oriented mentality to ensure industry leaders through guided practice. Experience implementing curriculum in supporting the development of culturally diverse populations and developing individualized plans for various learning levels. Adept at managing a hands-on learning environment while cultivating a productive atmosphere. Excellent communication and planning skills with an adaptable approach to problem-solving. Possesses positive strong presentation skills in implementing resources to motivate and encourage active participation.

Successful at locating vendors and coordinating the use of new educational materials and extensive knowledge of integrating technology into classrooms. Passionate about improving academic experiences to instill knowledge and practice to strengthen the workforce to meet company goals. Good relationship-builder and organizational skills paired with a forward-thinking and hard working mentality. Studious and passionate worker with extensive knowledge of teaching and learning. Outgoing and friendly with fantastic attention to detail.

Experience

Visual Arts Teacher, 07/2013 to Current

The Archer School For Girls – Los Angeles, CA

- Maintained a safe learning environment and kept meticulous records.
- Communicated with parents, students, and colleagues to create the best possible effective work environment.
- Wrote long range plans and lessons incorporating various learning strategies based on data of students prior experience in the practice visual art at the Art 1, 2, 3, and 4 levels with a minimum of 95% of students showing marked improvement.
- Taught the Yearbook course for two years in which I was able to increase sales 25% and create an environment where students ran the business.

Visual Arts Teacher, 07/2008 to 07/2013

The Archer School For Girls – Los Angeles, CA

- Celebrate Great Teaching Award for 2009-10
- Distinguished Arts Program Grant Recipient 2010-2013 earning highest distribution amount
- Led cultural awareness school wide family event bringing in 50% of the families

Visual Arts Teacher, 07/1999 to 07/2008

The Archer School For Girls – Los Angeles, CA

- Led culturally diverse students in the understanding and practice of beginning and advanced art for 9 years.
- Art Department Chairperson for 6 years at the high school level.
- District Annual Art Show Coordinator for 3 years, established vendor prize donations, organized six high schools (16 teachers) during a week-long set up event and weekend show.
- District-Wide Art Curriculum Guide Co-Developer at the high school level.
- Art Commission Leader for 6 years.
- Dance Commission Leader for 3 years, second highest funds earner for the school budget.

Skills

- Interactive classroom instruction engages learners improving learning outcomes.
- Positive hard working attitude, have proven to make me an excellent collaborator, team player, group leader.
- My organization allows me to meet 100% of my deadlines.
- Excellent at communication, creativity, and people management; excelling at leading a room of individuals.
- Knowledge of human nature motivates individuals and has increased passing rates.
- Confident educating colleagues on the use of new software for monitoring students.
- Highly knowledgeable in standardized testing techniques, critical thinking questioning and testing the effectiveness of course material.
- Course material development includes differentiated learning techniques, enrichment activities, use of technology which have proven effective in reaching all learning styles.
- Lead a team to develop the long range plans for the visual arts coursework; keeping in vertical and horizontal alignment with previous and future courses; which was used throughout the district.

Education and Training

Master of Arts: Curriculum and Instruction

Nova Southeastern University - Davie, FL

Bachelor of Arts: Studio Art

University of California At Davis - Davis, CA

Professional Clear Teaching Credential: Education

San Francisco State University - San Francisco, CA

Cross-Cultural Language and Acquisition Development (CLAD) Emphasis

Certifications

National Board Certified Teacher