LYSANNE GREENFELDER

710 Durgan Port, San Francisco, CA • +1 (555) 651 7976

WORK EXPERIENCE

SENIOR STAFF NETWORK ENGINEER   10/2015 - PRESENT
Phoenix, AZ

- Evaluate legacy architectures and lay-out plans to migrate to current solutions
- Proactive self-starter with the ability to direct their own work flow as well as those of others
- Act as a strong technical leader and SME for projects within your area of expertise
- Lead Migration and implementation teams
- Mentor and coach junior members of the technical team
- Quickly analyze, understand, document, and explain complex Network and data center architecture
- Make recommendations for new technologies in support of Network, data center and Network Security architectures and services
- Subject Matter expert with F5 products & technology (GTM, LTM, SSL offloading, ASM, APM, AFM etc.) including strong understanding of the different load balancing options and features to include: OneConnect, Persistence, SSL offload functions, HTTP profiles, iRules, etc

STAFF NETWORK ENGINEER   10/2009 - 05/2015
Detroit, MI

- A strong understanding of the Global Traffic Manager and Iquery functionality between LTM & GTM for a HA design
- Experience in technically focused Information Technology roles
- Pecific to Network and/or Network Security technologies
- Experience with F5 technologies
- Experience supporting mission critical, geographically dispersed high availability data center architectures
- Experience and solid understanding of Cisco Nexus platform
- Good overall network background with an understanding of routing and switching protocols, as well as application layer protocols

SENIOR STAFF NETWORK ENGINEER   10/2004 - 05/2009
Los Angeles, CA

- Serve as a technical lead for hardware installation, configuration, and operational support of these networks' routers, switches, load balancers, WAN optimizers
- Serve as a 3rd level support for hardware installation and operation of these networks' routers and switches
- Configures internet proxy servers to restrict corporate internet access to support the company's acceptable use policy
- Provides technical support for activities that improve the security posture of Visa's networks
- Serve as a technical advisor for hardware installation, configuration, and operational support of these networks' routers, switches
- Related experience in infrastructure/network environments and designing,
- External circuit connections
- Internal site connections

EDUCATION

LAWRENCE UNIVERSITY   1998 - 2003
Engineer's Degree in Engineering

PROFESSIONAL SKILLS

- Excellent communicator, comfortable with speaking with audiences with varying network skillsets
- Proven troubleshooting skills across the enterprise network using various tools and methodologies
- Strong LINUX skills, scripting
- Excellent verbal and written communication, customer service, time management, conflict resolution, and problem determination/resolution skills
- OpenStack Networking Experience (or production experience managing network for a virtualized environment) - Neutron configuration
- Extend and expand your problem solving skills using AWS services
- Strong Network and Security experience (Routing, Switching, Firewalls, DNS and Loadbalancers)